GETTING AHEAD - Apply PVI Model for Career Advancement

How to Ask for a Promotion

The path to a promotion in the tech industry can be byzantine, random, or downright confounding. It's true that luck and opportunity play a large role – your best chances of rapid career growth involve working at a high growth company, for a great boss, on successful projects.

LESSONS FROM LEADERS - In-depth Profiles

What Drives GM CEO Mary Barra?

We met CEO Mary Barra on what for her is familiar ground: the Detroit-Hamtramck assembly plant she once managed. She spent her entire career with the company, and people like Ed Fleming look at her as one of their own.

CAREER CENTRAL - Tips for Career Changers

How to Ace the Most Important Part of Your Job Interview

You're a perfect fit for the job. But that doesn't mean you're definitely going to get it. We've all been there. You aced the job interview and your credentials are a perfect fit for the position. Now comes the hard part – the 'beer test' or the personality test, a casual chat over drinks or dinner meant to determine how well you will fit with an organization on a personal level.

"Big pay and little responsibility are circumstances seldom found together."
~ Napoleon Hill

To Improve Your Team's Output, Look at it Differently

Why do you pay your team members? If you asked them, they might answer "You pay us to work." If you ask an office-based worker what "work" means to them, you'll get a list of typical workday activities. They read and write emails. They write reports.
