GETTING AHEAD - Apply PVI Model for Career Advancement

9 Ways Great Leaders Never, Ever Behave

People don't do anything worthwhile on their own: launch a business, run a company, or build a successful career. So we don't just want great people to work with us. We need great people to work with us. That is the only way to achieve real and lasting success. (Plus it's a lot more fun.)

LESSONS FROM LEADERS - In-depth Profiles

Voice of Experience: Anne Ozimek, SVP Securities Operations, Voya Investment

"Through every step of my career, I have focused on learning a set of skills and doing everything possible to meet the needs of my clients, so that when an opportunity came up, I was ready," says Anne Ozimek, senior vice president at Voya Investment Management. "Each job will offer a different set of challenges and every one of them will prepare you for your next step."

Joel's Words of Wisdom

Mapping Out Disruption

This phrase sounds magical—evoking images of explorers like Columbus or Lewis and Clark. It seems even more magical when you consider one of the key attributes of a successful executive is curiosity, and that 70 percent of all successful new businesses end up with a strategy different than the one initially pursued.
