Leadership in an Outbreak

As 2020 began, COVID-19, the official name of the novel coronavirus, was thought of mostly as a China-specific issue. But by late February, people around the world were learning the meaning of pandemic and coming to grips with the potential health impacts of a virus that has spread to more than 50 countries...

Don't Put Off Faith Until Tomorrow

Most people misinterpret faith as the belief that something totally unseen will miraculously happen to them to improve their lives. Faith is internal and fully grounded in the present. In order to better help you distinguish the and external-based faith, let's take a look at two real-life examples...
